MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

This week has felt a little disjointed with the school being used as a polling station yesterday. However, it did give our teaching assistants the opportunity to refresh their first aid qualifications and the teachers the chance to evaluate the effectiveness of the curriculum that we are currently delivering. I have also shown round several potential candidates for the head teacher vacancy. They left with a very good impression of the school and I am optimistic that the governors will be able to complete the recruitment process during the last week of this half term.

On a different note, please be aware that although Ascension Day itself falls on next Thursday, we have taken the decision to move our Ascension celebrations to Friday 17th May. As Easter has fallen so early it has meant that Ascension Day is during the week that is already disrupted by the bank holiday. As such, we will run the traditional church services and talents as soon as the KS2 SATs are completed in a fortnight's time.

MENU

There will be a limited hot menu for the next few weeks—please see the information on the back of this newsletter.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

In our Collective Worship this week, we explored the theme of 'People of God', focusing specifically on Jonah. We reflected on how God repeatedly found and forgave Jonah, and how God will do the same for each of us.

ABSENCES

Can we please remind parents that if your child is absent from school for any reason you must ring the school office on 01384 818760 and leave a message stating the reason (high temperature, cough etc.) This is particularly important if your child has an infectious condition as we may need to alert other parents.

If your child is absent due to a medical appointment, please advise on the message if they will be back in school in time for lunch and if they have a school meal booked. If you intend to take your child out of school during term time to go on holiday, an absence request form must be completed prior to the absence.

We advise that any holiday you take during term time should be kept to an absolute minimum and should be no more than ten days maximum during the academic year.

Thank you for your support.
