MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

Despite the children only being in for four days, this week has seen lots going on. Our new school cook, Mrs Kerry Belcher, has joined us and is getting to grips with trying to learn the names of the children and the staff. If you need to chat to her about your child's dietary requirements feel free to pop into the kitchen.

Our school sports teams have been in action. Our girls' football team lost narrowly to Maidensbridge on Tuesday afternoon, but avenged their defeat by beating our local rivals on the way to finishing 3rd in the Dudley Schools' Girls' Cricket tournament. Our Y6 boys' team qualified for the Dudley Schools' cup final, winning a very close game against Kates Hill Primary in the last few moments of extra time. Good luck against Peters Hill in the final!

FATHER'S DAY SALE Thursday 13th June

This year the Home and School Association will be holding a Father's Day sale on Thursday afternoon in school which will run in a similar way to the Mother's Day sale earlier in the year.

Children can bring in up to £5 maximum (and a carrier bag) and there will be a choice of gifts of various prices suitable for them to purchase for their father/grandad/uncle/special carer etc.

Only children who wish to take part will be taken down to the hall and the sale will only be taking place on Thursday afternoon.

Thank you for your support.
