MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

This week we welcomed our new Reception children to school. It has been lovely to see so many happy faces when I've popped into our Early Years Area, but so many tired ones as well as they complete their first week with us. The KS1 canopy has slowly taken shape over the week and I anticipate that by the end of today we will have a lovely new structure to supplement our outdoor space. Judging by how much rain we've experienced around home times, I expect that it will be most useful to the children and the adults! Thanks to the Home School Association for funding this addition to the school.

Can I take this opportunity to offer a big apology to those who have been trying to book school meals and to pay for OSCAR club this week. It seems that Eduspot - our cashless payment system - has had difficulty when trying to update the school's new classes. Mrs Reynolds is in a constant dialogue with the company and hopes that we will soon have a resolution.

Clearly, the Queen's death has overshadowed everything else that has happened this week. Today, the children attended an assembly celebrating her life as well as discussing the event in their classes. The assembly ended with us singing the National Anthem, I think that it's going to take a while to get used to singing "God save our King." If your child has been overly affected by what has happened, please let their class teacher know so that we can keep a special eye open for them over the next few days.

MENU

The menu for next week will be week 2 from the new menu.

***

CONSENT FORMS

You should have all received general consent, photo consent and social media consent forms to complete for your child.

Please complete and return these as soon as possible if you haven't already as we need to have up-to-date forms for all children. Don't forget to make sure your child's name is on!

Please note the photo consent form (Appendix Ai or Appendix B for reception children) and the social media (Appendix D) form must be completed on BOTH sides. If you do not wish your child to appear on social media we still need the form to be returned, please just write clearly on it that you do not consent.

If possible, please consent for your child's photograph to be used in school as they will then be able to appear on the board in the entrance by reception.

Thank you.
